

Come help envision A NEW CIVIC PARK

extending from the MUSIC CENTER to CITY HALL!

In June, you told us what you'd like to see and do in the park...

most popular:

- RESTAURANT / CAFÉ
- CONVENIENT AFFORDABLE PARKING
- SAFE AND SECURE, WELL-LIT
- QUIET PLACE TO BE
- WEEKLY MARKETS
- SHADY PLACE / GROVE
- MUSIC FESTIVAL
- COMMUNITY FESTIVALS
- LAWN / PICNIC AREA
- BOTANICAL GARDENS
- FOOD / COFFEE CARTS
- CALIFORNIA NATIVE GARDEN
- FILM SCREENINGS
- POND / REFLECTING POOL
- PEDESTRIAN BRIDGES OVER STREETS
- CHANGING ART EXHIBIT
- PEDESTRIAN PROMENADE
- OUTDOOR PERFORMANCE SPACE

PUBLIC MEETING AND WORKSHOP # 2 Saturday August 19, 10 am -12:30 pm

with

Levin & Associates, Architects
Rios Clementi Hale Studios
Community Arts Resources

... Now, come and help keep the conversation going!

Look at the design team's ideas

Listen to the presentation

Join in on the discussion

JOIN US at the National Center for the Preservation of Democracy

111 N. Central Avenue, between First and Temple
Across the plaza from the Japanese American National Museum

Public parking is available at the lots at First & Central and at First & Alameda

For more information, visit www.grandavenuecommittee.org

Grand avenue committee

For all questions and to RSVP call 213.891.2965 or email rsvp@grandavenuecommittee.org
If you require translation services for the workshop, you must RSVP and indicate the services necessary.

Can't make it to the workshop? Participate online!

Watch an interactive webcast of the workshop at www.grandintervention.org.

In an effort to extend its public outreach, the Grand Avenue Committee and The Related Companies are endorsing event webcasting and online civic engagement efforts by the Norman Lear Center at the USC Annenberg School.